money into the state of Nebraska, we don't know who...where they are from and who they are. There are a lot of things that should be tightened in the petition process. We...everyone in here wants something that meets the law. Well, what we've been doing has not met the law. And I think that the committee wanted some bills out, we wanted a good discussion, and I think our purpose has been fulfilled because I think we've had some good discussions. All the members of the committee did not support 7CA, but they did vote it out because they wanted to have a good discussion because they knew that we had some problems. Just a couple of comments on Senator Witek, she was talking about the teachers organization and so forth. Well, I would admit that if they'd put it in the mailboxes, some information to work on a campaign that that would not be proper, but there's nothing wrong with any type of organization. Would it be wrong for the President of FDR, I don't what he's got, how many, two, three, four thousand people work in Nebraska now, a memo saying to vote for Kate Witek for State Legislature. No, I don't think be anything wrong with it. That...that should...he's doing it. It's his money. So I...it is just a matter of organization. It's like running a campaign. So...when you get people out, it's going to work, and, Senator Dierks, how many...may I ask you a question, sir?

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Senator Dierks, will you yield?

SENATOR DIERKS: You bet.

SENATOR ROBINSON: I can never master this name, Dobrovolny, or how do you pronounce that.

SENATOR DIERKS: Dobrovolny.

SENATOR ROBINSON: Dobrovolny, you know I was...

SENATOR DIERKS: I'll spell it for you, too, if you want me to.

SENATOR ROBINSON: ...I was giving a Memorial Day...I've given a few Memorial Day speeches, and I had the Chief of Staff, and I finally learned how to pronounce Shalikashvili. Now I don't know, I'll tackle this one, but I doubt if I'll...I guess I could maybe use the name. How many...how many signatures did he
